So, I first picked “Addicted” (of the many Zane books) because there is a movie that will be coming out based on this book. When I first read the book blurb, I wasn’t sure I was going to like the storyline. Zoe, the main character, is addicted to sex; come on - how is this going to be entertaining or even good?

Zane books fall into this category. I only read a few chapters of this book along with my friend and as I expected, it was worthless. There is an ambiguous plot line,there's several things going on at once, the writing style is that of an amatuer, and list of errors that can reach from here to the moon.
