Clef Studies –

Vladislav Blazhevich.

This is one of the most important method books in a trombone player ' s repertoire. Not only does it include bass, tenor, and alto clef, but

Studies have done battle with the time honored Blazhevich Clef Studies either as a student, teacher or both. While Blazhevich's quirky etudes are excellent studies for teaching clef reading while solving varied musical problems, the typical complaints are that the first section (where studies are limited by an
