Helen Warner in conversation with her editor about her new novel, The Story of Our Lives~~The Juliet Club Suzanne Harper~~

THE JULIET CLUB is about six teenagers taking a Shakespeare Seminar in Verona, Italy, which is the same place where the famous Romeo and Juliet is set. The three Americans, Tom, Lucy, and Kate, are winners of a Shakespeare essay contest and have traveled halfway around the world to attend the seminar.

THE JULIET CLUB is a sweet and romantic story that is very Midsummer's Night Dream esque, complete with humorous antics that would make Shakespeare himself proud. I love a modern twist on classics and Suzanne Harper shrewdly shows her expertise on Shakespearean literature, text and understanding their depth and meanings.

' The Juliet Club ' by Suzanne Harper is just lovely. I read it in one day, which is something I just never manage when a book is over 200 pages long. I ' m a slow reader, so that ' s against me and I ' m also busy/distractible but this book just hooked me with its pleasant mixture of romance, Shakespeare and well characterised teenagers.

Kate Sanderson isn't exactly thrilled by the concept of "true love," having been sadly disappointed by the one-and-only boyfriend of her 16-year life. But when she wins a writing contest to attend a Shakespeare seminar in Verona, Italy, romance seems to be around every twist and turn of its antique streets. Six high-school students—three American and three Italian—take part in the seminar.
