Paen Gerville longed for a lively, well-rounded woman, one whose plump breast would cushion his head after the lonely, harsh life of a knight. At first his wife-to-be- promised no such delights-her form was unbending, her health apparently fragile as she fainted in his arms after their first kiss. But one split bridal gown later, her assets were eye-poppingly apparent and Paen could only grin as he anticipated the surprises yet to come on his wedding night with the perfect wife.

Avelyn sagged with defeat and nodded, then remained silent as they waited for the woman to be brought to the room. Avelyn's mind was whirling. She had been berating herself for being a failure as a wife. . . but not now. She wasn't useless. She was proving herself a good wife. Her hands were shaking because she cared so much and feared for Paen's well-being.
